Family Night in the Park

The Oklahoma City Pro-Am Classic Criterium brings you three full days of high energy racing for both the amateur and elite cyclist. All three days in the heart of OKC, it offers an exciting atmosphere the whole family can enjoy.

Friday night's National Calendar race in Midtown rolls through one of the nations largest night markets, H&8th, providing approximately 30,000 spectators a front row seat from the action. H & 8th expands to Red Andrews Park, featuring a family and pet-friendly environment, including food trucks, children's activities, yard games, giveaways, and live music!
